

Brief Constructed Response

The media specialist needs to estimate the number of books she could order to fill the fiction section of the media center. The section can hold 8,192 books. She already has 5,344 fiction books.

Part A

About how many more books does she need to order?

Part B

Use what you know about estimation to explain why your answer is correct. Use words, numbers, and/or symbols in your explanation.
